On March 2, 2007, STI Prepaid LLC ("STI") and the Arizona Supreme Court, Dialaround Enterprises, Inc. ("Dialaround") jointly petitioned upon the intervenor's ("Applicants") filed with the Commission a joint application for intervention. For information requesting that the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") (1) approve the transfer to STI of Dialaround's Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CC&N") to provide, resold, long distance services; and (2) upon transfer of the CC&N, approve the termination of services by Dialaround. The Applicants stated that they had, on January 23, 2007, entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement ("Agreement") under which Dialaround would transfer all or substantially all of its assets to STI. The Applicants assert that if the joint application were granted, after the transfer, Dialaround's existing customers would receive long distance services from STI under the same rates, terms, and conditions currently applied by Dialaround, and Dialaround would cease to provide telecommunications services in Arizona. The Commission's Utilities Division Staff ("Staff") has recommended approval of the joint application, subject to certain conditions. The Commission will determine the appropriate relief to be granted based on the evidence of record in this matter. The Commission is not bound by the proposals made by the Applicants, Staff, or any intervenors. How You Can View or Obtain a Copy of the Application and Other Documents.
